The Land of Stories. The dungeon was a miserable place. Light was scarce and flickered from the torches bolted to the stone walls. Foul-smelling water dripped inside from the moat circling the palace above. Large rats chased each other across the floor searching for food. This was no place for a queen.

"High up on a tree, taller than all the steeples in all the land, a lonely little bird awoke in her nest," he read aloud as he wrote the first sentence of his newest story. The soft scratches of his quill came to a halt and the author scratched his head. "Wait, why is the bird asleep?" he asked himself.
